HOMECOMING: A JOURNEY THROUGH TIME

On 5th December 2025, thirty years after graduation, the ISC Batch of 1995 returned to Timpany. The hallways, once echoing with the bustle of school days, now hummed with wonder as alumni walked through, peering into classrooms—a journey back into their own youth.

The event was graced by the presence of our Director-cum-Principal, Mrs Vandana Abraham, and our esteemed Vice Principal, Mrs Georgina Veronica, as well as teachers and students from classes 5-12.

The morning's assembly featured a prayer song by the school's choir followed by a house assembly by the students of class 11 which explored the theme of nostalgia. Then three heartfelt speeches were given by the alma mater. Mr Murthy spoke of overcoming challenges, likening life's hurdles to school tests—lessons in resilience. Dr Radhika emphasised the importance of mental health, urging everyone to speak openly and reminding all that strength lies in seeking help. Mrs Manjusha reflected on life's choices, resilience and critical thinking, describing how one small decision in school can alter one's entire path.

The most moving moment came when the alumni performed an original song about school life. Its nostalgic lyrics of shared tiffins, rainy days, and lifelong bonds brought tears and smiles, capturing a shared history in melody.

Then, in a delightful turn, the alumni joined the students for mass PT on the field. For ten joyful minutes, they jumped and stretched in unison, laughter erasing the decades. They were students once more, bound by rhythm and memory. The day proved a beautiful truth: school friendships never fade. Conversations flowed from “remember when” rather than “what do you do.” These bonds, forged in innocence, remain life’s constants.

The ISC batch of '95 presented a painting of Kalpavriksham to the Principal, Mrs Vandana Abraham, as a token of gratitude to be placed in the school corridors. The ISC Batch of '95 left behind more than footprints; they left a legacy of courage, care, and connection—a living reminder that Timpany is not just a school, but a home forever.

A key highlight of the gathering was the exhortation delivered by Pastor Sanjay Joshua, who spoke on “Principles of Closed Doors” with reference to Genesis 6:9. Drawing insights from the life of Noah, Pastor Sanjay Joshua emphasised how closed doors in our lives are often divine protections and preparations. He encouraged the students and staff to trust God’s timing, remain faithful in obedience, and understand that every closed door leads to a greater purpose designed by Him.

His message was insightful, inspiring everyone to reflect on their journey and rely on God’s wisdom during challenging seasons.
